

George T. Henry College Archives
Stewart Memorial Library
Coe College

Public Use of Images

The George T. Henry College Archives assumes that patrons will use or publish photographs in an accurate and appropriate manner.

Permission: Written permission must be obtained for public use of any images from the collection. This includes use in a variety of media including books, journals, slide shows, displays, television, motion pictures, and the World Wide Web. Permission is granted for one-time use for the stated purpose only. Repeated uses or authorization of another's use is a violation of the permission granted.

Credit: Each photograph must be credited to the George T. Henry College Archives, Stewart Memorial Library, Coe College and to the specific collection which holds the image. Proper credit lines are noted on the permission form. In addition, users should credit the photographer or artist when known.

Fee: A user fee of $25.00 per image (in addition to reproduction costs) will be charged for commercial use of materials from the collection. These fees will be used to care for the photographs.

Deposit copy: Users must provide, without charge, one copy of the publication in which reproduction from the collection appear.

Copyright: Permission to publish an image does not constitute copyright release. The archive does not hold copyright to all images in the collections. Obtaining proper release for a copyrighted image is entirely the responsibility of the user. Staff will supply all available information to assist users with releases.